RE: Subscription to APA Div 19 and 34 lists

I am not a member of the APA, or Division 34. I am not a State licensed psychologist and don't pretend to be one. I have been in a battle with psychologists and their organizations since about 2001, culminating in: EoP v WiP NWO negotiations Legal Correspondence to International Psychiatry and Psychology Organisations [PDF]

Summary: Efforts to find a South African or International Psychiatric or Psychological Organisation or Psychiatrist or Psychologist Professional whose Organisational or Individual Professional Ethics compel them to (i) base their psychological social conflict mitigation and reduction management therapy practice based upon Ecological Reality Facts; and (ii) testify under oath to observable Ecological factual reality in any court of law.

I read about the APA listserv in a Guardian news article about APA psychologists responses to the Hoffman Report, took a browse of the different listservs and subscribed to Div 19 and 34; for the sole purpose of being able to access reading the listserv discussions; which could only be done by subscribing. I was not aware it was for APA members only; and if so; then I am not one and consequently not eligible to be a reader of either Div 19 or 34's lists. If so, I have no problem being unsubscribed; or unsubscribing myself; should you notify me to do so.

Before reading any other material: Is any of it considered confidential?

For the record:

My response in the past to anyone – whether CIA, NSA, KGB, MI6, or US Special Forces Michael Martin etc –with secrets to tell has been: Get my permission before you bother to inform me of your secrets; or keep your secrets to yourself.

I ain't into secrets; possibly cause I don't give a fuck about gossiping or backstabbing anyone; or cause I ain't interested in stealing their resources. If I have anything to say to anyone; or about anyone I say it to their face; and provide them the opportunity to confirm whether the information or my opinion about them is accurate or not.

Re: APA Div 19 and 34 lists: Is any info on lists considered confidential?

I am a member of Ecology of Peace culture [EoP Oath (PDF)]. I am not a member of the APA. It is my working hypothesis theory that the APA is a conscious or unconscious Masonic War is Peace organization. I am not a State licensed psychologist and don't pretend to be one.

I have been in a EoP battle with WiP psychologists and their organizations since about 2001.

Summary: Efforts to find a South African or International Psychiatric or Psychological Organisation or Psychiatrist or Psychologist Professional whose Organisational or Individual Professional Ethics compel them to (i) base their psychological social conflict mitigation and reduction management therapy practice based upon Ecological Reality Facts; and (ii) testify under oath to observable Ecological factual reality in any court of law.

Someone at APA, I don't know whom; has granted me reading access to APA Div 34 Population and Environmental Professional issues and Div 19 Announcements only.

However, as per my correspondence to: Div 19: Paul Bartone; and Div 34: Robert Gifford: I prefer to avoid being told confidential information aka secrets. I only consent to be informed of secrets; subsequent to having been informed of the justification for secrecy; and agreeing such secrecy to be justified.

Before I read any of the contents of Div 19 and 34; I would like to confirm that none of it is considered confidential or secret. If any poster considers their information posted to this list to be confidential; kindly notify me; and I shall avoid reading any posts from such author.

Should either of you or your political party leadership or members desire my departure from this planet; because I 'appear to be a complete waste of oxygen'. I have been attempting to make arrangements for my departure from this Masonic infested planet of gutless cowards for fifteen years now. All I have asked is for South African and/or International authorities or Oklahoma City bombing prosecutors and/or counsel to confirm with President Bush and/or Governor Gray Davis that Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked; and whether the terms of his faked execution allow for me to physically spend two years with Timothy McVeigh off grid in a little village in the Siberian wilderness; before we depart this planet together.

So far South African and/or International prosecutors, lawyers, magistrates, judges, politicians and Oklahoma City bombing prosecutors and counsel refuse to confirm with President Bush and/or Governor Gray Davis that Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked; so I have been unable to find out whether the terms of his faked execution allow for me to physically spend two years with Timothy McVeigh off grid in a little village in the Siberian wilderness; before we depart this planet together.

If you or your fuck honour political party leaders are willing to confirm with President Bush and/or Governor Gray Davis that Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked; and find out whether the terms of Timothy McVeigh's faked execution allow for me to physically spend two years with Timothy McVeigh off grid in a little village in the Siberian wilderness; before we depart this planet together; then we can expedite your desire for my departure from this planet; so I don't consume any more of your or your fuck honour political party's oxygen.

Peter Levenda: Sinister Forces: A Grimoire of American

Subject: Peter Levenda: MILED Info re: Sinister Forces

Mr. Levenda

I have read portions of the summary and excerpts you provide regarding your book: Sinister Forces: A Grimoire of American Political Witchcraft.

I do not disagree with your premise that much of what people consider to be politics or history has significant occult undertones. Where I differ is in my interpretation of causes and motives. Specifically you state:

This is a book about evil. Evil ordinary and extraordinary. Evil vigilant. Evil militant. ... The evil we can't grasp, cannot punish, cannot destroy. The evil that contaminates souls as well as bodies, nations as well as people. This is a book about the evil spirits that haunt America. About the sinister forces that rule the world of our dreams, our nightmares, and our sober, trembling, waking reality.

This book is an attempt at understanding. The premise is one that has been embraced by psychoanalysts like Jung and physicists like Pauli: the existence of another mechanism in the universe that binds together events seemingly unrelated. The perspective offered is unique, dangerous, incredible, possibly offensive. The subject matter - serial homicide, genocide, assassination, terrorism, multiple personalities, satanism, sexual savagery, demonic possession, depravity, insanity – makes it impossible to be anything else. We cannot begin to heal until we have identified the disease; we cannot identify the disease until we have studied the anatomy of the body politic. Freud, in order to understand the workings of the human mind, focused on its pathology. We, in order to understand America – and America's place in the world - must do the same. We must plumb the depths of the American psyche, the American unconscious, and dredge up whatever we find before its too late.

How late is it?

My perspective to the aforementioned is as follows:

Definition of 'evil':

This is my current working hypothesis related to the issues of esoteric secret societies reliance on Gnostic symbolism as their existential source of meaning, and its consequences on inter and intra gender and human-natural world relations; or what religions refer to as good vs evil. Very simplistically I would call people who consciously live in accordance to an Ecology of Peace procreation and consumption lifestyle to be 'good' and those who consciously or unconsciously live in accordance to a War is Peace procreation and/or consumption lifestyle to be engaged as contributory behaviours of resource scarcity that result in population pressure resource wars, that manifest as individual or collective organized -- psychological, economic, political and military -- violence resource warfare.

When humans on planet earth, not only Americans, confront and understand the premise that we live on a finite planet with finite resources, which means that if we wish to avoid resource conflict, we must implement an international social contract that restricts all tribes, races, cultures and religions to breeding and consuming below carrying capacity limits, then healing of the organized violence disease can begin.

As for: What time is it? Dr. Al Bartlett answers that question with regard to finite resource realities.

I have not received any feedback response from you informing you of Ecology of Peace → New World Order social contract options; indicating your support for the implementation of an Ecology of Peace social contract; to orderly and humanely resolve deindustrialization and depopulation of humanity return to ecological carrying capacity limits. Real News: [Lawrence Wilkerson: If we Remain Predators, the Planet Will Cast Us Off]

Since your What a Way to Go: Life at the End of Empire movie documentary deals with psychological disorder consequences of civilization issues; I shall include my EoP correspondence to you in EoP v WiP NWO negotiations Legal Correspondence to International Psychiatry and Psychology Organisations [PDF].

I noticed it included consciously or unconsciously little references to Masonry: (a) the man walking down the street in his underwear; (b) the abstract, vague poetic vague ramble about 'a growing up ritual'; which sounds possibly Masonic; in terms of Alice in Wonderland type language; which avoids being clear and specific about what people can do to grow up; such as support the implementation of an Ecology of Peace international law social contract which means more specifically: (i) breed below ecological carrying capacity limits; (ii) consume below ecological carrying capacity limits; or (iii) your cheater biological and psychological cheater genes shall be evacuated/terminated/removed from the planetary genepool.

Anyway, its not possible to get a better understanding of whether your references to Masonic behaviours were intentional or purely accidental; or the simple psychological behaviour consequences from living in a society infested with passive aggressive margarine Masonic symbolism behaviours; as opposed to Anders Breivik's direct aggression butter Masonic behaviours.

If you – like so many official and unofficial Masons -- are not interested in growing up to a masculinity or femininity that includes the capacity for buck stops here butter discussion about issues you consider problems; then its quite simply not possible to resolve any of the issues you may consider to be 'problems'; with you honourably and nonviolently.

Do you know that the traditional Mosuo tribe in China have no prisons, no mental institutions; no homeless, no unemployed, virtually no crime? [Example of a TYGAE-like culture that practices Ecological and Political Balance: Mosuo Culture of SW China: No murder, rape, war, insanity or jails]

If your references to Masonry; in What A Way to Go; were intentional: were they passive aggressive subliminal because you are (a) afraid of honourably confronting official Freemasons and those who practice Masonic profiteering from the Masonic War is Peace human factory farming 'right to breed/consume' international law social contract; or (b) like many white guilt liberals you refuse to support non-Europeans in their efforts to confronting their fellow ethnic and/or religious brethren to refrain from procreating like cockroaches on viagra behaviors; because you prefer an endless stream of non-European cheap slave labour to benefit from [See: Racism Disclosure Experts [PDF] annexure to EoP PoW submission to Swiss Federal Council]

I would prefer the term "Pashto speaking Turk" for myself, although not many would understand, or appreciate its relevance.....as I don't want to identify with a people who are themselves largely responsible for most of their troubles and ailments.....my reputation is most valuable, and I don't want to soil it by involving it with lowlifes and boors who have limited and inhibited themselves senselessly, and who make deliberate negative use of their potentials - primitive, corrupt and lawless to the very core. ... I have more worthwhile things to do, than to be involved with a brigade of base, and shrill liars, whose politics blatantly tries to whitewash the image of their twisted people and society - by attributing to them a non-existent humanity and decency, meant for the consumption of an audience of international idiots in this era of information chaos. Pashtuns often will not even drive on the proper side of the road, and think nothing of doing so, let alone being the tragic angels that they are made out

How many lily white guilt environmentalists are willing to admit that environmentalist movements refusal to confront the necessity of educating people that not only environmental problems – but all ethnic, religious, psychological social conflict: everything from poverty, unemployment, war, crime, violence, food shortages, food price increases, inflation, police brutality, political instability, loss of civil rights to vanishing species, garbage and pollution, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste to racism, sexism, Nazism, Islamism, feminism, Zionism etc – are direct and indirect consequences of humans living in accordance to a Masonic War is Peace international law social contract that provides humans the ‘right to breed and consume’ with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits.

EoP Therapy vs SHAM WiP Therapy Wars; Re: Guardian: Therapy Wars: Revenge of Freud

I read your article: Therapy Wars: The Revenge of Freud; enjoyed the following quotes; and thought you may appreciate some feedback.

When it comes to easing mental suffering, “it’s like we’ve got a hammer, a saw, a nail-gun and a loo brush, and this box that doesn’t always work properly, so we just keep hitting the box with each of these tools to see what works,” said Jules Evans, “What do you think is the most powerful medication you prescribe?” And people would try to answer that, and then eventually he’d say: ‘the relationship’ - Michael Balint

“What happens in therapy,” Pollens said, “is that people come in asking for help, and then the very next thing they do is they try to stop you helping them.” His smile hinted at the element of absurdity in the situation – and in the whole therapeutic undertaking, perhaps. “How do we help a person when they’ve told you, in one way or another, ‘Don’t help me’? That’s what analytic treatment is about.”

“The one question nobody can ever answer is of what are you unconscious?” -- James Hollis

Summary: EoP Therapy vs SHAM WiP Therapy Wars:

“You cannot allow any of your people to avoid the brutal facts. If they start living in a dream world, it’s going to be bad.” - USMC General James ‘Mad Dog’ Mattis

“Organized violence – whether by official nation state military or dissident guerrilla warfare terrorists – warfare is an extension of political warfare, by other means. Political warfare is an extension of economic warfare, by other means. Economic warfare is an extension of population and consumption warfare by other means. Military, political and economic warfare are the resource-thieving spoils of warfare consequences of citizens living in tribes and nations whose social contracts -- inalienable-right-to-breed-and-consume with total disregard for ecological resource carrying capacity limits -- are based upon international Flat Earth Masonic War is Peace social contract jurisprudence.” - amended quote of Carl von Clausewitz, ‘On War’.

I shall keep this as short as possible.

Masonic War is Peace Therapy Wars:

The earth is flat; resources are infinite, gender, racial, cultural, religious cognitive dissonance psycho-social conflict is a direct and indirect consequence of some mental disorder disease in the individual's subconscious, brain or feelings. By consciously or unconsciously deliberately avoiding confronting the root causes of psycho-social conflict resource pressures; psychologists and psychiatrists can collaborate to perpetuate the growth of their snake-oil 'misery relief' market by simply ignoring the real causes of the psycho-social resource war conflict misery market; and pretending to search for the causes of their patients misery in the patients brains, beliefs or thinking; as opposed to the ecological, economic, political and legal forces and institutional resource war reality enabling and underpinning all psycho-social conflict misery.

Focus of Therapy is to consciously or unconsciously – if consciously it is deliberate and malicious fraud – perpetuate the clients psycho-social resource conflict misery problem indefinitely while socio-politically exploiting the clients misery for personal gain, by means of either confusing the client with academic gobbledygook language and psycho-babble pseudo-medical concepts and/or manipulating the emotions of clients. The parasite psychologist deliberately avoids any focus on clearly defining the clients psycho-social conflict resource war problems; and even more importantly the root cause of the patient's problem. Put differently: The bath is overflowing, parasitic psychologist focus their clients attention on endlessly mopping up the floor; simply using a new colour style or technology therapy mop; who is therapy mopping, how, when, where; who isn't, why not etc. Any attention towards defining the problem as the population pressure resource war running tap is strictly avoided, sometimes vilifying anyone who even mentions the possibility of a tap leaking being the source of the problem; as 'racist' or 'homophobic' or 'eugenicist' etc.

Helping a client therefore is consciously or unconsciously focused on enslaving the client with bullshit Alice in Wonderland la la land remedies; that do sweet fuck all to address the root population pressure resource war reality contributing to their clients' psycho-social conflict; but benefit the socio-medical status and/or financial benefit of the psychologist; at least until psychology and psychiatry either voluntarily confront their fraudulent practices and implement problem solving therapy on their own practices by adopting Ecology of Peace practices; or are exposed as a massive fraud; or it collapses into the dustheap of history when civilization very violently collapses due to its military, political, legal, psychological, religious elites refusal to implement international legal measures to eliminate ecological strain and economic inequality.

Ecology of Peace Therapy:

Focus of Therapy is root cause problem solving: Act towards solving any problem to enable the problem, and its root cause; to be clearly and succinctly defined; and then determining whether the client has the will to individually amend their lifestyle to eliminate their lifestyle contribution to the root cause of the problem; and cooperate with others to eliminate the root cause of the problem. If the problem is an overflowing bath; then the therapy focuses on helping the patient to notice the tap and to turn off the tap, cooperating with others to turn off the global tap of misery.

Ecology of Peace Facts Reality being: (a) Earth is not flat; (b) Earth renewable and non-renewable resources are finite; (c) When humans breed or consume above ecological carrying capacity limits, it results in resource conflict; (d) To sustainably protect and conserve natural resources in accordance to local and national carrying capacity limits; and restrict national and international inter-cultural, racial and religious resource war conflict; humans must reform and/or abolish the Masonic War is Peace international law social contract; and cooperate to implement an Ecology of Peace international law social contract that restricts all the worlds citizens, from all races, religions and classes; to breed and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits.

Population and resource depletion pressure resource wars manifest in many different – economic, political, and finally military –ways; one of which is coercive cultural, religious, gender, racial and class ‘normal behaviour’ conformity pressures; which results in cognitive dissonance for individuals who have different cultural, religious, gender, race or class existential purpose of being alive; aspirations that are not considered ‘normal’; who are required to suppress their spontaneity, sincerity, honesty and pretend to be ‘normal’; the suppression of which manifests with passive aggressive manipulative behaviour; addictions to substances that help them feel more alive or escape their misery; or violence to attempt to alter offensive ‘normality’ to their preferred racial, religious, cultural or class concept of ‘normal’ then coercively forced upon everyone else.

Efforts – so far – to find a psychologist who legally recognizes Ecology of Peace Facts reality [\[PDF\]](#).

Helping a client therefore is consciously focused on (a) clearly and unequivocally informing and educating the client about the – Masonic War is Peace ‘right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits international law social contract reality – population pressure resource war reality root cause of all psycho-social resource war conflict; (b) to enable the client to determine whether the client has the will to individually amend their lifestyle to eliminate their procreation and/or consumption lifestyle contribution to the root cause of the problem; and (c) unconditionally or conditionally cooperate with others to eliminate the root cause of everyone’s psycho-social conflict resource war misery problems; by honourably and transparently – preferably nonviolently – implementing an Ecology of Peace international law social contract.

“If you can't explain it simply, you don't understand it well enough.” - Albert Einstein

1. Psycho-social resource conflict conformity pressures – like climate change, food shortages, food inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources, nation states standing army or dissident guerrilla army ‘terrorism’ resource war military aggression, etc – are a direct and indirect consequence of overpopulation and overconsumption.
2. Overconsumption and overpopulation are a direct consequence of humans procreating and consuming above ecological carrying capacity limits.
3. Humans procreate and consume above ecological carrying capacity limits because the current international law social contract; allows nation states to provide their citizens with the implied 'right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits'.

4. Humans will stop procreating and consuming above ecological carrying capacity limits when legislators amend the current international law and national constitutional social contract statutes that enable procreation and consumption above ecological carrying capacity limits; to specifically require all the worlds/their nations citizens to procreate and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits.

Current International Law Right to Breed & Consume:

There are many examples of current international law statutes that directly and indirectly provide citizens with the right to breed and/or consume above ecological carrying capacity limits; and lawyers, prosecutors and Judges who apply them, all while pretending their courts are concerned with 'truth' and 'evidence'; pretending they have fuck all clue why and how those statutes result in food shortages & inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources and climate change; inter-racial, religious and cultural social conflict; psycho-social conflict; not to mention overpopulation and consumption resource depletion and scarcity induced resource wars; which sometimes manifest as genocide and holocausts.

Put simply: unlike Arthur Edens and Michael Clayton – they are in total denial that they are Sheva the legal cryptic gods of death.

Summary of the origins and practices of Sheva & Lucifer the cryptic gods of death:

The following are – in my view relevant excerpts from – EoP PoW et al -v- Norwegian Nobel Committee et al; for your consideration:

-----Excerpt: EoP PoW et al -v- Norwegian Nobel Committee et al -----

AnthroCorpocentric Jurisprudence's Innocence for Sale Indulgence Legal Matrix:

“Corporations are a Frankenstein monster which States have created by their corporation laws.” - Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis, 1916

“Every right must be evaluated in the network of all rights claimed and the environment in which these rights are exercised. If we hold that every right, “natural” or not, must be evaluated in the total system of rights operating in a world that is limited, we must inevitably conclude that no right can be presumed to be absolute, that the effect of each right on the suppliers as well as on the demanders must be determined before we can ascertain the quantity of right that is admissible. From here on out, ours is a limited world. Rights must also be limited. The greater the population, the more limited the per capita supply of all goods; hence the greater must be the limitation on individual rights, including the right to breed. At its heart, this is the political meaning of the population problem.” – Garrett Hardin, Limited World, Limited Rights

Civilized Patriarchy's Legal Matrix Reality doctrine -- the Inalienable 'Right to Breed and Consume, but you need a License to Own a Gun, a License to Drive a Car, a License to Practice Law, a television license, a credit license, a license to earn a living, a university exemption license, a license to fish, a license to hunt, a liquor license, a business license, a marriage license, in some U.S. states, five year olds, even need to get a license to run a lemonade stand on their front lawn -- hypocritically referred to as the 'rule-of-law' is a legal world of lawyers, politicians and priests, who prefer to negligently ignore, plausibly deny, or socio-psychopathically benefit from the conquer-and-multiply and divide and conquer control over the means of human reproduction and consumption. It is a Matrix reality, of legal, political and religious indulgence salesmen.

It is a legal world, very similar to the Matrix religious world that existed before Martin Luther confronted the religious indulgence salesmen with his Ninety-Five Theses, on the Church of All Saints, on 31 October 1517, thereby initiating the Protestant Reformation.

In the Catholic Church's religious Matrix world, only Catholic Bishops were entitled to be interpreters of the 'word of god'. Only they could decide what God meant, about who was guilty and who was innocent, who would go to hell and who would go to heaven. God did not speak to common people, except via the Catholic Church's bishops.

In Civilized Patriarchy's Legal Matrix world, only those who swear blind obedience to Civilized Patriarchy's Legal Matrix world -- lawyers, prosecutors and judges -- are deemed to possess the supposed superior intellectual Legal Godlike capabilities, to decipher, decode and interpret the 'word of civilized patriarch gods', hence capable of deciding which of us mere Commons surplus cannon fodder mortals acts of commission, or omission, is 'lawful' or 'unlawful'.

Civilized Patriarchy's Legal Matrix 'AnthroCorpocentric law' is based upon Flat Earth 'jurisprudence', as per the demands of those capable of purchasing Flat Earth legislation indulgences which make their ecologically -- breeding/consumption war -- criminal acts, to be deemed as 'legal/lawful' conduct by the Legal Matrix Bishops: lawyers, prosecutors and Judges.

It is a Matrix world of legal indulgence salesmen; who -- 'Contempt in Facie Curiae' -- demand the public's sycophantic submissive obedience; for their supposed superior intellectual Godlike capabilities, to decipher, decode and interpret which of us mere Commons surplus cannon and vote fodder mortals acts of commission, or omission, is 'lawful' or 'unlawful'.

Thieving, Conquering, Murdering and Culling Acts of Un/Lawfulness:

"Military men are just dumb, stupid animals to be used as pawns in foreign policy." - Henry Kissinger; The Final Days, by Bob Woodward & Carl Bernstein

Surplus vote fodder citizens may convert to becoming cannon-fodder citizens by joining the military to commit conquering or culling acts of murder and theft, as long as their murder and theft is sanctioned as a lawful conquer, culling or theft order, by one or more groups of left/right conquer-and-multiply legal indulgence salesmen.

In this Matrix Reality legal world, soldiers tasked with the national security conquering and culling responsibilities, of conquering to thief another tribe's resources, and culling population 'useless eaters' and 'oxygen thieves' surplus population excesses; on behalf of the conquering and culling profiteering demands of civilized patriarchy's civilian corporate and political elite; constantly find themselves confronted with the conquer-or-culling "Befehl ist Befehl" Catch 22 dilemma:

To obey, or not to obey, a 'Lebensraum', 'Difaqane', 'Operation Freedom' and the thousands like them, order to conquer or cull; since a lawful conquer or culling order, by one group of left/right conquer-and-multiply legal indulgence salesmen, can easily be reinterpreted to be an unlawful order, by another group of opposing left/right conquer-and multiply legal indulgence salesmen; presenting a Catch 22 dilemma from which there is no legal escape.

One who refuses a 'lawful' conquering or culling order will still probably be jailed for refusing orders, and one who accepts an 'unlawful order will be jailed for committing unlawful culling or conquering acts.

Who decides, what is, and what is not, a conquering or culling lawful, or unlawful order?

The 'Inalienable Right to Breed' Matrix Reality conquer-and-multiply indulgence salesmen, with their specious justifications, and nightmare of Legal Matrix reality generated bureaucratic stare-decisis cryptic rules and statutes, of course!

"I don't know what you mean by 'glory,'" Alice said.

Humpty Dumpty smiled contemptuously. "Of course you don't—till I tell you. I meant there's a nice knock-down argument for you!"

"But 'glory' doesn't mean 'a nice knock-down argument'," Alice objected.

"When I use a word," Humpty Dumpty said, in rather a scornful tone, "it means just what I choose it to mean—neither more nor less."

"The question is," said Alice, "whether you can make words mean so many different things."

"The question is," said Humpty Dumpty, "which is to be master—that's all."

-- Through the Looking Glass, by Lewis Carroll

Anthropocentric Master's of 'Relevance' Jurisprudence:

The question in a civilized patriarchy court is only concerned with who is the master of one word: 'relevance'.

Any question or answer that exposes civilized patriarchy's Legal Matrix system for what it is; a system far more corrupt than the Catholic Church's Indulgences for Sale religious matrix, is simply deemed as 'irrelevant'.

It is 'irrelevant' that legislators, lawyers, courts and judges defy the laws of ecology with a massive 'fuck you', by legislating, interpreting and enforcing Legal Matrix doctrine, that encourages citizens to breed and consume above cultural carrying capacity limits.

It is 'irrelevant' that legislators, lawyers, courts and judges know that legislation which ignores carrying capacity limits results in ecological overshoot, surplus vote-cannon-fodder populations, economic hierarchical inequality, and scarcity induced local, national and international conflict.

It is 'irrelevant' that legislators, lawyers, courts and judges know that legislation which enables ecological overshoot in multi-cultural/ethnic/religious communities, manifests as inter-cultural / ethnic / religious conflict.

It is 'irrelevant' that legislators, lawyers, courts and judges know that inter-cultural / ethnic conflict is a great divide and conquer tool to manipulate the proletariat to perceive other cultural/ethnic proletariat as the source of their own overshoot-scarcity-conflict misery.

It is 'irrelevant' that legislators, lawyers, courts and judges sit in judgement about an accused's case of theft or murder; while consciously ignoring the theft and thievery and participation in mass murder of the civilized patriarchy corporate elite, who purchased 'Innocence for Sale' Indulgences from legislators to avoid legislation that defines their ecologically criminal acts of billion and trillion dollar thievery and murder as 'unlawful'.

What is relevant?:

It is relevant that civilized patriarchy's penis constitutions human factory farming rights to breed and consume, is to be master —that's all.

Who says so?:

Civilized Patriarchy's ecologically illiterate Legal Matrix Legislator's, lawyers, judges and prosecutors ego-genitals say so!

Totalitarian Agriculture as the source of Taker resource scarcity social-conflict contract problems:

The problems with Taker social contract occurred with the invention of Totalitarian agriculture; which describes the behaviour of humans who violate their original indigenous tribal territory's by choosing to engage in surplus food production (economic growth); resulting in surplus human (population growth).

When any tribe of humans overbreed and/or overconsume the natural resources in their perceived tribal territory; they travel beyond their tribal territory to go and find resources they have over-consumed and degraded. When such a tribe enters another tribes territory, then conflict occurs (from economic, political to physical, an organized violence warfare). To limit inter-tribal territorial resource acquisition conflict, all tribes must agree to limit procreation and consumption to their tribal territory ecological carrying capacity limits.

Simplistically the history of war can be summed up as: Every single battle between two groups of racial, religious, ethnic, or ideological warriors, engaged in organized violence resource thieving or defence, since the advent of totalitarian agriculture, was a result of one or both of those tribes having overbred and/or overconsumed, and engaging in resource thieving into another tribes territory.

Since the beginning of humans (whatever you believe that beginning to be) humans lived in nomadic hunter gatherer tribes, like the Bushmen, Aborigine's, etc. Male duties were to hunt and protect the tribe. Women's duties were to forage and nurture the young. Both men and women contributed to the tribe's economic resources and duties, hence power was shared reasonably equally. Tribes were concerned about not overbreeding; since such overbreeding resulted in the resources in a territory being depleted quicker, and less resources for the rest of the tribe; requiring them to move to new territories. After three million years of humans living like hunter gatherers, it is estimated that the human population at the beginning of the Neolithic period was around ten million.

Then things changed very quickly for the tribes who invented Totalitarian agriculture. Women invented agriculture, resulting from their close association and experimentation with seeds and plants, in their role as foragers. This change occurred because some tribes started practicing a particular form of 'surplus agriculture' (hereinafter referred to as 'totalitarian agriculture') where farmers grew large surpluses of stored food. The consolidation of agriculture results in the centralization of political power: cities & civilization. Before the discovery of oil and coal, the practice of totalitarian agriculture farming was far more labour intensive than hunting and subsistence farming; so men took over agriculture; and women were now relegated to being brood sows, to breed economic and cannon fodder: children to work in the fields or be soldiers. Surplus food meant that some members of the tribe could now work in other specialized fields: soldiers, clerks, etc; and also that the tribes could grow their tribes population. World population doubled in three thousand years; and again in only two thousand years. It jumped from ten million to fifty million—probably eighty percent of them being practitioners of totalitarian agriculture. It was getting crowded.

Beginning of War is Peace War resulting from overbreeding and overconsuming: In all of three million years, humans had never been crowded anywhere. But now the people of practicing totalitarian agriculture were learning what it means to be crowded. Overworked, overgrazed land was becoming less and less productive. There were more people, and they were competing for dwindling resources; and people now began to organize their tribes into forms of standing armies to fight for land or resources. The tribes first war-making machinery: warlords—kings, princes, emperors and their nation states formed for the purpose of armed defense and aggression. "It's during this period that we see the standing army forged as the monarch's sword of power. Without a standing army, a king is just a windbag in fancy clothes. But with a standing army, a king can impose his will on his enemies and engrave his name in history—and absolutely the only names we have from this era are the names of conquering kings. No scientists, no philosophers, no historians, no prophets, just conquerors. For the first time in human history, the important people are the people with armies."

Evolution of War is Peace War: Advancement and acquisition of Human and Military Technology and Capital vs Breeding of CannonFodder: In a battle between two armies with the same level of military skill and technology; generally the bigger army wins. Many of history's military conquerors have relied on simply growing cannon fodder to slaughter on the battlefields to win their battles or wars. Some military conquerors focussed on improving their soldiers skills (psychological, physical, intellectual, spiritual, etc), technology (better armor, better swords, better chariots, better bows and arrows, better scaling machines, better rams, better artillery, better guns, better tanks, better planes, better bombs, better rockets, better nerve gas, better germs, better chemicals); and legal moral supremacist 'innocence for sale' indulgence interpretations psychological warfare doctrine. Many times small armies with greater technological equipment and/or military tactical or strategic skills won: There are many examples, but two are Battle of Blood River (guns), conquest of North and South America (guns, germs & steel).

WiP Resource Conflict: Initially economic, then political, and finally military organized conflict: Centuries of conflict over resources generated an international law social contract founded upon Masonic phallic force (rule of force international treaties); that rewarded those who engage in seething energies of lucifer breeding and consumption wars; which bribe their tribes members to believe it is their 'inalienable [freedumb slavery] right' to breed and consume above carrying capacity limits; while denying personal responsibility for the human factory farming organized violence conquer and culling racism, sexism, nationalism, socialism, capitalism, nazism, islamism, zionism, corporatism, stalinism, human sacrifice culling, etc consequences; as people are motivated beyond retardation (motarded) to choose to join one or other ideological, religious, racial or cultural tribe to engage in resource war thieving to accumulate more resources to grow their tribe to enable it to protect itself from another tribes organized violence resource war thieving.

Totalitarian Agriculture's Luciferian Evil Human Sacrifice Harvest Religions:

“When The Mason learns that the Key to the warrior on the block is the proper application of the dynamo of living power, he has learned the Mystery of his Craft. The seething energies of Lucifer are in his hands and before he may step onward and upward, he must prove his ability to properly apply this energy.” - Manly Palmer Hall, Illustrious: the Lost Keys of Freemasonry

"in this case the defendants are not simply accused of planning or directing wholesale killings through channels. They are not charged with sitting in an office hundreds and thousands of miles away from the slaughter. It is asserted with particularity that these men were in the field actively superintending, controlling, directing, and taking an active part in the bloody harvest." - Nuremberg Military Tribunal, United States of America vs. Otto Ohlendorf, et. al. ("Einsatzgruppen trial"), Judgment.

All civilized religions — from Christianity, to Gnosticism, etc — were ‘created’ in the minds of man to comprehend the concept of ‘evil’ (aka organized violence), subsequent to man’s invention of agriculture, approximately 10,000 years ago; and where such agriculture created food surpluses, resulting in population surpluses, and expansion of their territory resulting in population pressure clashes with other tribes territories, resource war conflict.

Extended misery resulting from direct and psychic existential conflict resulted in man’s attempt to understand so-called ‘evil’; or put more simply: the organized resource thieving direct conflict (rape, murder, slavery, etc) resulting from population pressures and escalating relations with fellow humans based upon the absence of consent, i.e. extended periods of psychic and physical violence and coercion.

If there are two or ten people living on an island with enough food and other resources and space, for one hundred people; there is no need to coerce another for food or resources freely and abundantly available. In the absence of a resource scarcity conflict mindset, and plenty of space, tribal relations are more conducive to cooperation and sharing. Living in the moment. There is no need for an external God in the sky to explain ‘evil’; there is only a consciousness to appreciate the source of resource abundance, as the ‘source of life’; and to live in harmony with such source: nature. Violence is limited to food chain violence experienced by all species; namely hunting and being hunted by another predator for immediate food. [See also: Law of Limited Competition]

If the tribe introduces agriculture, which results in an agricultural surplus and uses such agricultural surplus to justify greater population; then as the population increases, so the population pressures increase. There is less space to run away from someone who may be temporarily angry, or wanting something another is not willing to provide in that moment. The existence of 'evil' (organized violence) is plausibly directly proportional to the resource war conflict, resulting from the tribe's violation of carrying capacity limits; and/or coming into contact with another tribe's territorial expansion as a result of their violation of carrying capacity limits. In attempting to understand the existential meaning of this symptom of 'evil' resulting from violation of carrying capacity limits resource war conflict, man created religions...

The invention of agriculture and agricultural surpluses, and subsequent organized violence of civilization are the biblical story of Adam and Eve's loss of living in carrying capacity harmony with the natural world resource abundant paradise, and Cain's choice to be a farmer. Others saw opportunities for socio-political status benefits from exploiting the reality of organized violence (evil), and suppressed this conscious reality of their intentions by invoking various phallic 'right' justifications for their 'right' to engage in organized violence (evil).

The Mason's 'seething energies of lucifer' are the psychological warfare art of manipulating and coercing men and women to overbreed and overconsume, to thereby aggravate resource war conflict, and the ability to divide and conquer people's, for the socio-political profit of the 'warrior', to 'step onward and upward'; as he 'proves his human sacrifice ability' to apply his breeding war and consumption war energies. Put differently, the 'seething energies of lucifer' are no less than the phallic justification for profiting from aggravating and perpetuating deliberate organized violence, without the consent of the recipients of the violence.

Totalitarian Agriculture WiP Tower of Babel Empires that violently collapsed: Humans who engage in totalitarian agriculture, engage in Predator-Prey Growth and Collapse of Civilization/Empire cycles: Greco-Rome, Minoan, Mycenaean, Sumerians, Akkadian, Assyrian, Babylonian, Achaemenid, Seleucid, Zhou, Han, Tang, Song, Parthian, Sassanid, Umayyad, Abbasid, Mauryan, Gupta, Maya, Hittite, Harrapan and Teotihuacan. Collapses result from (1) Ecological Strain due to procreation and consumption above ecological carrying capacity limits; and (2) Economic Stratification; and have included the disappearance of between 90-99% of their populations (from famine, disease and organized violence resource wars) including their kings, Gods, calendars and other complex political and cultural institutions.

-- Sarah Levin: Films for Action: How Does Addiction Relate to Our Relationship to the Living World?

'Addiction' is a fine old English word meaning commitment, dedication, devotion, inclination, bent, or attachment.

Particular addictions may be good or bad. Some folk are addicted to music, others to books, others to walks in the country. Some are addicted to a religious doctrine or community, be it the Roman Catholic, the Mormon, or the Zen Buddhist. Others are addicted to a political philosophy, like liberalism, socialism, or anarchism, or to a 'cause', like animal rights or free trade.

Some people are addicted to another person: perhaps their spouse, perhaps their latest flame. Others are addicted to a habit, like getting up early every morning. Michelangelo was addicted to painting and sculpting, Einstein was addicted to physics, Proust was addicted to writing, Gandhi was addicted to independence for India. Many others, of course, have been equally addicted to these pursuits, but have lacked exceptional talent.

Sometimes addictions fade gradually. The ardent lover becomes the jaded husband, or the heavy drinker of alcohol gradually moderates. Other times, one addiction is suddenly replaced by another: the ardent lover of x becomes the ardent lover of y, or the heavy drinker becomes instead a born-again Christian. Malcolm X relates how converts to the Nation of Islam quickly abandoned any of their former drug-taking habits.

An addiction is not exactly the same as habit, though one can be addicted to a habit. John Stuart Mill refers to 'A man who causes grief to his family by addiction to bad habits.' Addiction is a fondness for, or orientation toward, some thing or activity, because it has meaning, because it is considered valuable or even sacred. In some cases, people may be addicted to something because they find it enjoyable, and this, of course, also reflects their values: such a person believes that the right way to live is to seek enjoyment.

Human life is always involved with addictions, and would be wretched and worthless, perhaps even impossible, without addictions. Addico, ergo sum. Yet human life can be devastated or horribly blighted by ill-chosen addictions. A simple example would be that of an adolescent drawn into an apparently warm and benevolent religious group, which only gradually comes forth in its true colors as a destructive cult of collective suicide. Another example might be a young person in the 1930s, becoming a Communist or a National Socialist.

Addictions are indispensable. Addictions--and only addictions--can open us up to all that makes life rich and fulfilling. Yet addictions can also have appalling consequences. The conclusion is clear: choose your addictions very carefully! Nothing is more vital for a young person than to select the right addictions. Addictions we approve of are called 'virtues'. Addictions we disapprove of are called 'vices'.

In recent years, the word 'addiction' has come to be used with quite a different meaning. It is now taken to refer to any activity which individuals engage in, deliberately and consciously, and are physically unable to stop themselves pursuing. Thus (it is claimed) the heroin addict cannot refrain from injecting himself with heroin, the alcohol addict or 'alcoholic' cannot refrain from swallowing alcoholic beverages, Bill Clinton cannot refrain from having sexual relations with his subordinates, the overspending housewife cannot refrain from buying 'unnecessary' things in stores, and the compulsive gambler cannot stop gambling.

In this newfangled sense of 'addiction', I maintain that 'addiction' is a myth. I deny that there is any such thing as 'addiction', in the sense of a deliberate and conscious course of action which the person literally cannot stop doing. According to my view of the world, the heroin addict can stop injecting himself with heroin, the alcohol addict can stop himself from swallowing whisky, and so forth. People are responsible for their deliberate and conscious behavior. . . .

"When I talk to addicted people, whether they are addicted to alcohol, drugs, gambling, Internet use, sex, or anything else, I encounter human beings who really do not have a viable social or cultural life. They use their addictions as a way of coping with their dislocation: as an escape, a pain killer, or a kind of substitute for a full life. More and more psychologists and psychiatrists are reporting similar observations. Maybe our fragmented, mobile, ever-changing modern society has produced social and cultural isolation in very large numbers of people, even though their cages are invisible!"

-- Bruce Alexander: Addiction: The View from Rat Park.

".....the Prozac family of drugs can produce a kind of psychological hijacking --a bizarre and nightmarish syndrome marked by suicidal thoughts, extreme agitation, emotional blunting, and a craving for death. They also argued that the company knew of these risks and, instead of warning doctors to look out for them, worked vigilantly to sweep them under the rug.”

“In this riddle, the lily pond has a potentially virulent lily that apparently will double in size each day. If the lily grows unchecked it will cover the entire pond in 30 days, choking off all other forms of life in the water by the time it covers the entire pond. If a skeptic waited until 50% of the pond was covered before taking any remedial action to save the pond, when would he act? The answer: on the 29th day of the month! But by then, it would be too late.”

Ecology of Peace Facts being: (a) Earth is not flat; (b) Earth renewable and non-renewable resources are finite; (c) When humans breed or consume above ecological carrying capacity limits, it results in resource conflict; (d) To sustainably protect and conserve natural resources in accordance to local and national carrying capacity limits; and restrict national and international inter-cultural resource war conflict; humans must implement an Ecology of Peace international law social contract that restricts all the worlds citizens to breed and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits.

The Ecology of Peace culture has not come across any scientifically based 'mental disorder' definition; and consequently does not consider Masonic War is Peace culture members allegations of 'mental disorders' to be scientifically based. In the same way that coalminers would use a canary to warn them of the toxicity of air in a coalmine; Ecology of Peace culture considers individuals experiencing cognitive dissonance from conformity pressures resulting from overpopulation and overconsumption resource war pressures; as human canaries unconsciously warning about the toxicity of Masonic War is Peace culture.

Updated draft of Homer Lea biography summary:

Most recent EoP draft of Homer Lea biography with feedback from Lawrence Kaplan:

Homer Lea, a Caucasian American writer, was best known as the white American Chief of Staff, soldier of fortune military adviser to Chinese revolutionary leader Dr. Sun Yat-sen during the 1911 Chinese Republican Revolution. As a published author, his most well known works included, "The Vermilion Pencil," a popular romance novel about China, made into a play named the Crimson Spider; and "The Valor of Ignorance" and "The Day of the Saxon," part of a three volume trilogy that focused on American and British defense issues, respectively. Lea died in 1912 before he could complete the third volume of his trilogy -- which according to Homer Lea researcher Roger Yung, but disputed by Homer Lea researcher Lawrence Kaplan -- could have been titled, The Swarming of the Slavs -- that would have examined democracy and the inter-relations of world powers.

Response to Lawrence Kaplan's constructive criticism editing suggestions on Homer Lea biography:

I am not researching Homer Lea off or on the internet; nor have I ever pretended to be researching Homer Lea. I don't care if Roger Yung is a trained historian or a self taught historian. I care if he -- or anyone -- is a sincere truthseeker researcher.

It is quite possible that Roger Yung has according to subjectively held information and evidence available to him; included what you consider to be "undocumented/hearsay information"; based upon subjectively held information and evidence available to you.

Roger Yung does provide a clear caveat on his Homer Lea Site front page regarding his Homer Lea research on his website; which clearly informs any reader that:

If you want to know more about Homer Lea, the information you receive may be confusing, incomplete, and contradictory, perhaps even fraudulent and controversial. Many historians will not touch the subject. If we keep an open mind and are willing to explore through open discussion, we will be able to piece together a more complete picture of this rather enigmatical man. As you walk through each web page, one attempts to answer the same puzzling question - Who is Homer Lea? If you can look at the whole picture, the people, the time, the milieu surrounding him, one may be at a loss for words attempting to describe the entire man and what he stood for.

Perhaps the information you provided Roger was not sufficiently evidentiary for him to consider worthy of correcting what you consider his errors. Perhaps he is not sincerely interested in truthseeking; or perhaps there are other reasons.

In the absence of knowing Homer Lea related (i) facts that you both agree upon; (ii) the evidence and information you both hold, and your decision-making in terms of arriving at your particular working hypothesis conclusion interpretation of such facts; I am not able to provide you with my subjective interpretation of whose 'interpretation' is more accurate or logical or reasonable.

If you are buck stops here truthseekers engaged in finding the truth about Homer Lea; then you may be able to cooperate and find the facts; which you can agree upon; although your interpretation of such facts may be different; and if you are honourable men; you can agree to disagree on that particular Homer Lea issue in dispute; until you have more buck stops here facts; and still cooperate on other Homer Lea research issues.

If at some point in time you make a decision that both of you are buck stops here truthseekers about the issue; and you cannot come to agreement about whose interpretation is more accurate; you can find an impartial truthseekign arbitration expert – i.e. whose truthseeking on any issue is based upon 'truth the whole truth and nothinb but the truth, based upon the evidence, the whole evidence and nothing but the evidence'; irrespective of whether the truth offends Homer Lea researchers and or anyone else -- to provide you with their interpretation as to whose interpretation they consider more accurate or reasonable.

The biographic sentence of Homer Lea that I authored; is not of major importance to the issues that I am researching; as long as it is accurate in simple english a village idiot can understand; I am happy with it.

Here follows more detailed info on Updated draft of Homer Lea biography summary decision-making

Re: Researching Homer Lea:

I am not researching Homer Lea off or on the internet; nor have I ever pretended to be researching Homer Lea.

I and others, have been researching the root cause of the majority of socio-economic and political problems resulting from resource depletion and resource wars: including among others: climate change, food shortages, food inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources, climate change, terrorism, feminism, nazism, Islamism, capitalism, communism, militarization of police, etc.

We have identified the root causes as the 'right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits' Masonic War is Peace clauses of international law; and are busy in EoP v WiP NWO Negotitions enquiry to determine what if any military, legal, political, religious, racial will there is for cooperating to nullify the Masonic War is Peace 'right to breed and consume' clauses of international law; and replace them with Ecology of Peace clauses that restrict all the worlds citizens from all nations, of all races and religions to procreate and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits; and eliminating violators from the planetary genepool.

That is what I and others; have been researching off and on the internet.

Re: Credible – Homer Lea; or other topic – expert:

I don't care if someone is an official historian; ie. licenced by a WiP academic institute; such as yourself; or a self taught historian, such as Roger Yung; an official soldier; i.e. licenced by an official military academic institute; such as General James Cartwright or David Petraeus; or a self taught guerrilla soldier; like Homer Lea.

Off the cuff summary of EoP perspective of credible expert ethics characteristics:

My concern regarding the credibility of any individual's – expert or self taught – information; is the quality of their evidence in context; which as far as I can tell is a consequence of their (a) sincere commitment to truthseeking on the particular issue; i.e. when provided with evidence contradicting a particular hypothesis to sincerely investigate it and if proven correct; to take responsibility for admitting their mistake; and (b) to consider their working hypothesis conclusion within context.

An alleged expert who refuses to (a) sincerely consider and examine contrarian evidence, including contextual evidence; (b) admit a mistake; if or when provided with evidence that contradicts a pillar of their evidence upholding their particular working hypothesis conclusion; has an agenda that is not truthseeking, but something else; whether ego careerism, self deception about his commitment to truthseeking, etc.

A 'problem solving' expert has additional responsibilities; such as es to (a) enquire into the root causes of the particular problem they are representing themselves as an expert at solving; (b) when root cause problem is discovered, honestly communicate such root cause problem they are alleged experts at solving; (c) once the root cause has been shared with the client; determining whether there is sufficient will to eliminate the root causes of the problem.

If the client is a large organization such as a corporation or state for example; the problem solving issue is more complicated; and depends on numerous factors; such as for example: will of the 'strategic decision-maker'; their advisors, etc.

If a problem solving experts individual client is not sincere about problem solving the particular problem; a sincere problem solving expert should confront the client with the possibility that they are not sincere; but only engaged in a bullshit the public relations image management exercise; and if the client is not willing to demonstrate their sincere commitment to problem solving; terminate their problem solving expertise towards such client as not being sincerely interested in problem solving their particular problem; until such client changes their mind, if ever.

Generally speaking such a client would – consciously or unconsciously -- not really want the problem solved, they only want to pretend to be solving the problem, so they can market themselves as an alleged ‘problem solver’ for socio-political or economic profits; while actually unconsciously or consciously deliberately and covertly perpetuating the problem for their own political and/or economic profits. They are parasitically covertly profiteering off not solving the problem; while overtly and publicly pretending to be concerned about helping to solve the problem.

EoP v Homer Lea Strategic Intelligence Goals:

I did read Homer Lea’s book: Valour of Ignorance; some of which I found very informative; such as my EoP interpretation of Homer Lea’s writings; as published at Military Gospel according to Homer Lea.

“Investigation shows that whenever two nations have become engaged in warfare they have been advancing on converging lines of (resource acquisition for growing consumption or procreation) self-interest and aggrandizement. When the contact takes place, the struggle for supremacy, or even survival is at hand. This inevitable hour is approximately fixed and determined by the angles of convergence plus the sum of the relative (consumption / breeding war) speed by which the nations are moving along their respective lines. Thus it is that, when the angle of (breeding / consumption war) convergence of both or even one of the nations is acute and the speed or progress along one or both of the converging lines correspondingly great, war results in a few years or decades.”

I don’t think my strategic intelligence goals are exactly the same as Homer Lea’s. Similar in some aspects; yes, but identical; I don’t think so. That is not to say that there is not much that I can learn from the lessons he learnt, his experience; as I can from anyone else; particularly their willingness to confront themselves and admit their mistakes.

“To free a nation from error is to enlighten the individual, and only to the degree that the individual will be receptive of truth can a nation be free from that vanity which ends with national ruin.” – Homer Lea

“It is necessary for you to learn from other's mistakes. You will not live long enough to make them all yourself.” -- Eleanor Roosevelt and/or Admiral Hyman Rickover.

"An academic reactor or reactor plant almost always has the following basic characteristics: (1) It is simple. (2) It is small. (3) It is cheap. (4) It is light. (5) It can be built very quickly. (6) It is very flexible in purpose ("omnibus reactor"). (7) Very little development is required. It will use mostly "off-the-shelf" components. (8) The reactor is in the study phase. It is not being built now.

"On the other hand, a practical reactor plant can be distinguished by the following characteristics: (1) It is being built now. (2) It is behind schedule. (3) It is requiring an immense amount of development on apparently trivial items. Corrosion, in particular, is a problem. (4) It is very expensive. (5) It takes a long time to build because of the engineering development problems. (6) It is large. (7) It is heavy. (8) It is complicated.

"The tools of the academic-reactor designer are a piece of paper and pencil with an eraser. If a mistake is made, it can always be erased and changed. If the practical-reactor designer errs, he wears the mistake around his neck; it cannot be erased. Everyone can see it.

"The academic-reactor designer is a dilettante. He has not had to assume any real responsibility in connection with his projects. He is free to luxuriate in elegant ideas, the practical shortcomings of which can be relegated to the category of "mere technical details." The practical-reactor designer must live with these same technical details. Although recalcitrant and awkward, they must be solved and cannot be put off until tomorrow. Their solutions require manpower, time and money."

-- Admiral Hyman Rickover; Letter from H.G Rickover [PDF] via Wikipedia;

It is a human inclination to hope things will work out, despite evidence or doubt to the contrary. A successful manager must resist this temptation. This is particularly hard if one has invested much time and energy on a project and thus has come to feel possessive about it. Although it is not easy to admit what a person once thought correct now appears to be wrong, one must discipline himself to face the facts objectively and make the necessary changes—regardless of the consequences to himself. The man in charge must personally set the example in this respect. He must be able, in effect, to “kill his own child” if necessary and must require his subordinates to do likewise. I have had to go to Congress and, because of technical problems, recommended terminating a project that had been funded largely on my say-so. It is not a pleasant task, but one must be brutally objective in his work.

-- Admiral Hyman Rickover; Doing a Job via Gov Leaders

If however two individuals strategic intelligence goals are not the same; then their ultimate strategic intelligence path is different.

Homer Lea was intent on exposing the impending war consequences; but failed to clearly and simply – in buck stops here simple english a village idiot could understand -- articulate the ‘right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits root causes of overpopulation and overconsumption converging lines of resource acquisition for growing consumption and procreation self-interest and aggrandizement.

To the extent that he was conscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and advise those he was advising to cooperate with other nations, races and religions to address the root ‘right to breed and consume’ clauses of international law causes of war; to that extent his goals were not to honestly educate about how to end war and implement peace; but ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve the ‘war’ problem orientated.

To the extent that he was unconscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and if someone had confronted him and informed him of such failure and he was (a) receptive to the constructive criticism, enquired into it; and admitted his mistakes; and altered his strategic intelligence goals advisory policy; his strategic intelligence goals would have been root cause problem solving orientated; or (b) not receptive to the constructive criticism, ignored or silenced the constructive criticism; his strategic intelligence goals would have been ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve problems orientated.

Its possible nobody ever provided Homer Lea with constructive criticism advise to clearly clarify the root causes of the problem he was allegedly focussed on solving; and engage in an enquiry whether there was sufficient political will to address those root causes; which could be because of many reasons: (a) he did not surround himself with; or had not found or was not even looking for; a or sufficient sincere buck stops here truthseekers to be his advisors (b) of the sincere truthseekers around at that time; on the planet; none of them were focussed on the truthseeking the particular problems Homer Lea was focussed on addressing; and consequently none of them had arrived at the root cause of the problem, and consequently the root cause of the particular problem had not been discovered.

Hence the EoP working hypothesis summary of the difference between EoP and WiP strategic intelligence policy formulators; as stated to Eeben Barlow:

[..] Re: Difference between EoP and WiP Effective Strategists & Policy Formulators:

Masonic War is Peace is about consciously or unconsciously identifying the root cause of the problem, and applying STRATINT to deliberately perpetuate the problem indefinitely so as to socio-politically and financially parastically profit of the misery resulting from the problem. The tap has been left on, the bath is overflowing. Masonic War is Peace profiteers argue about what colour mops to use; who is mopping; who is hiring chinks or japs or coolies to do the mopping, blah blah.

Ecology of Peace identifies the root cause of any problem and applies STRATINT skills to eliminate the root cause of the problem. EoP Applicants [PDF] identified 'the right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits clauses' - aka policy - of the Masonic War is Peace international law social contract; as the root cause of the majority of socio-economic and political problems resulting from resource depletion and resource wars: including among others: climate change, food shortages, food inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources, climate change, terrorism, feminism, nazism, Islamism, capitalism, communism, militarization of police, etc. Ecology of Peace STRATINT advisors simply point out the tap is causing the bath to overflow; and find out who is willing to cooperate to turn off the tap.

-- EoP v WiP NWO Negotiations: 20 Sep: Eeben Barlow's Military and Security Blog: The Dangers of Ignoring Strategic Intelligence.

To the extent that he was unconscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and if someone had confronted him and informed him of such failure and he was (a) receptive to the constructive criticism, enquired into it; and admitted his mistakes; and altered his strategic intelligence goals advisory policy; his strategic intelligence goals would have been root cause problem solving orientated; or (b) not receptive to the constructive criticism, ignored or silenced the constructive criticism; his strategic intelligence goals would have been ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve problems orientated.

Re: Psychology Researchers confront their fear of confronting context in their research:

See for example: Prof Mary Boyle: Is clinical psychology fearful of social context? Why we might be, why it matters and what we might do about it; Standing up and Speaking out about Social Context Division of Clinical Psychology at Glasgow; regarding psychologist experts 'fear' of confronting context:

"I got the very powerful impression that Laird and Clark seemed to sense that fully engaging with context would make it much more difficult to pursue their core arguments that the main causes of misery are anxiety and depression. That the major reason for misery's persistence is how people think; and that a major part of the solution is individual therapy. Now it certainly complicates funding discussions with government; as you can imagine, if they did engage with context. So this brings me to my second question, what is it about confronting well evidenced role of social context; in both the development and the persistence of mental health problems; which seems so difficult even threatening. I think there is quite a few possibilities and I'll deal with a few briefly. But familiarly over all of them is both our insecurity as a discipline and a profession. So the threats are: Its not science. Its not psychology. Creates feelings of helplessness. Need for acceptance by Psychiatry. Involves telling truth to power. Now psychology as a whole is intensely concerned about its academic and social acceptance; as a science. Jim Orford once said "We still suffer from an inferiority complex making us do things just because they appear scientific. So we emphasise our similarity to the biological and natural sciences. We give the highest to the methods of the natural sciences. We are also very preoccupied with avoiding accusations of social and political bias; of being influenced by subjective values; rather than objective facts." Why our avoidance of context matters so much, the major implication is that our theories and research are always potentially influential. Whether we approve it, intend it or whether we are even aware of it; what we say and do will have influence in so far as particular psychological ideas become part of a construction of reality; which can then be drawn on by those with the power to frame social problems and their perceived solutions. ... It suggests that when we as psychologists conceptualize people and their problems; it becomes a kind of cultural resource; and above all, a relation to this avoidance of context; I think this model shores how our theories can help maintain the social and economic status-quo. ... through narratives of justification. Now its often been pointed out that maintaining harmful social practices or inequalities; usually needs some sort of public story; which makes them seem reasonable. And if we look at it from the point of view of those who benefit from inequalities; an especially powerful narrative is one which distracts attention from context; which could help us understand why some groups are persistently disadvantaged or suffering; why their behaviour seems difficult; and instead focuses on mental or biological characteristics; which seem to explain these outcomes. Historically psychology has provided a major role in providing these narratives. ... Now it's important to emphasise that we don't intend social harm, but our profession simply has to provide the intellectual framework -- and of course give it scientific respectability -- others will do the rest. ... Context also make it much more difficult for those in power to avoid addressing the psychological impact of social and economic policies; and also they are not incompatible with helping individuals. I don't think its an exaggeration to say that clinical psychology is at a watershed in terms of who we are and what we stand for. I hope we will acknowledge that how we relate to social context is absolutely central to those questions; and I also hope we will choose to implement the conference theme in major and very public ways. I think we can be both confident that we have a scientific and ethical mandate, but also I think we may be surprised at just how many allies we would have."

Both sides of the Masonic War is Peace – namely the ‘mental disorders exist’ and the ‘mental disorders don’t exist, psychiatry is a fraud – divide are afraid of confronting their ‘fear of context’ research mistakes.

In their case including context – such as: could what they call ‘mental disorders’ simply be the canary on the frontlines in the Masonic War is Peace toxic culture coalmine; whose cognitive and behavioural coping mechanisms symptoms of individuals experiencing racial, ideological, class or cultural existential identity and/or resource conflict anxiety resulting from population pressures colliding with declining resources; which are the direct consequences of the ‘right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits’ clauses of international law social contract? -- in their research for the ‘causes of mental disorder misery; would result in them either (a) admitting their mistakes and engaging in truthseeking research; or (b) ignoring the canaries; covering up their mistakes; and ultimately psychiatry and psychology drive their 500 tonne train over their ‘fuck ecological carrying capacity gravity laws’ ‘matchstick bridge’.

Updated draft of Homer Lea biography summary:

Most recent EoP draft of Homer Lea biography with feedback from Lawrence Kaplan:

Homer Lea, a Caucasian American writer, was best known as the white American Chief of Staff, soldier of fortune military adviser to Chinese revolutionary leader Dr. Sun Yat-sen during the 1911 Chinese Republican Revolution. As a published author, his most well known works included, "The Vermilion Pencil," a popular romance novel about China, made into a play named the Crimson Spider; and "The Valor of Ignorance" and "The Day of the Saxon," part of a three volume trilogy that focused on American and British defense issues, respectively. Lea died in 1912 before he could complete the third volume of his trilogy -- which according to Homer Lea researcher Roger Yung, but disputed by Homer Lea researcher Lawrence Kaplan -- could have been titled, The Swarming of the Slavs -- that would have examined democracy and the inter-relations of world powers.

Response to Lawrence Kaplan's constructive criticism editing suggestions on Homer Lea biography:

I am not researching Homer Lea off or on the internet; nor have I ever pretended to be researching Homer Lea. I don't care if Roger Yung is a trained historian or a self taught historian. I care if he -- or anyone -- is a sincere truthseeker researcher.

It is quite possible that Roger Yung has according to subjectively held information and evidence available to him; included what you consider to be "undocumented/hearsay information"; based upon subjectively held information and evidence available to you.

Roger Yung does provide a clear caveat on his Homer Lea Site front page regarding his Homer Lea research on his website; which clearly informs any reader that:

If you want to know more about Homer Lea, the information you receive may be confusing, incomplete, and contradictory, perhaps even fraudulent and controversial. Many historians will not touch the subject. If we keep an open mind and are willing to explore through open discussion, we will be able to piece together a more complete picture of this rather enigmatical man. As you walk through each web page, one attempts to answer the same puzzling question - Who is Homer Lea? If you can look at the whole picture, the people, the time, the milieu surrounding him, one may be at a loss for words attempting to describe the entire man and what he stood for.

Perhaps the information you provided Roger was not sufficiently evidentiary for him to consider worthy of correcting what you consider his errors. Perhaps he is not sincerely interested in truthseeking; or perhaps there are other reasons.

In the absence of knowing Homer Lea related (i) facts that you both agree upon; (ii) the evidence and information you both hold, and your decision-making in terms of arriving at your particular working hypothesis conclusion interpretation of such facts; I am not able to provide you with my subjective interpretation of whose 'interpretation' is more accurate or logical or reasonable.

If you are buck stops here truthseekers engaged in finding the truth about Homer Lea; then you may be able to cooperate and find the facts; which you can agree upon; although your interpretation of such facts may be different; and if you are honourable men; you can agree to disagree on that particular Homer Lea issue in dispute; until you have more buck stops here facts; and still cooperate on other Homer Lea research issues.

If at some point in time you make a decision that both of you are buck stops here truthseekers about the issue; and you cannot come to agreement about whose interpretation is more accurate; you can find an impartial truthseeking arbitration expert – i.e. whose truthseeking on any issue is based upon 'truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth, based upon the evidence, the whole evidence and nothing but the evidence'; irrespective of whether the truth offends Homer Lea researchers and or anyone else -- to provide you with their interpretation as to whose interpretation they consider more accurate or reasonable.

The biographic sentence of Homer Lea that I authored; is not of major importance to the issues that I am researching; as long as it is accurate in simple English a village idiot can understand; I am happy with it.

Re: Researching Homer Lea:

I am not researching Homer Lea off or on the internet; nor have I ever pretended to be researching Homer Lea.

I and others, have been researching the root cause of the majority of socio-economic and political problems resulting from resource depletion and resource wars: including among others: climate change, food shortages, food inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources, climate change, terrorism, feminism, nazism, Islamism, capitalism, communism, militarization of police, etc.

We have identified the root causes as the 'right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits' Masonic War is Peace clauses of international law; and are busy in EoP v WiP NWO Negotiations enquiry to determine what if any military, legal, political, religious, racial will there is for cooperating to nullify the Masonic War is Peace 'right to breed and consume' clauses of international law; and replace them with Ecology of Peace clauses that restrict all the worlds citizens from all nations, of all races and religions to procreate and consume below ecological carrying capacity limits; and eliminating violators from the planetary genepool.

That is what I and others; have been researching off and on the internet.

Re: Credible – Homer Lea; or other topic – expert:

I don't care if someone is an official historian; ie. licenced by a WiP academic institute; such as yourself; or a self taught historian, such as Roger Yung; an official soldier; i.e. licenced by an official military academic institute; such as General James Cartwright or David Petraeus; or a self taught guerrilla soldier; like Homer Lea.

Off the cuff summary of EoP perspective of credible expert ethics characteristics:

My concern regarding the credibility of any individual's – expert or self taught – information; is the quality of their evidence in context; which as far as I can tell is a consequence of their (a) sincere commitment to truthseeking on the particular issue; i.e. when provided with evidence contradicting a particular hypothesis to sincerely investigate it and if proven correct; to take responsibility for admitting their mistake; and (b) to consider their working hypothesis conclusion within context.

An alleged expert who refuses to (a) sincerely consider and examine contrarian evidence, including contextual evidence; (b) admit a mistake; if or when provided with evidence that contradicts a pillar of their evidence upholding their particular working hypothesis conclusion; has an agenda that is not truthseeking, but something else; whether ego careerism, self deception about his commitment to truthseeking, etc.

A 'problem solving' expert has additional responsibilities; such as es to (a) enquire into the root causes of the particular problem they are representing themselves as an expert at solving; (b) when root cause problem is discovered, honestly communicate such root cause problem they are alleged experts at solving; (c) once the root cause has been shared with the client; determining whether there is sufficient will to eliminate the root causes of the problem.

If the client is a large organization such as a corporation or state for example; the problem solving issue is more complicated; and depends on numerous factors; such as for example: will of the 'strategic decision-maker'; their advisors, etc.

If a problem solving experts individual client is not sincere about problem solving the particular problem; a sincere problem solving expert should confront the client with the possibility that they are not sincere; but only engaged in a bullshit the public relations image management exercise; and if the client is not wiling to demonstrate their sincere commitment to problem solving; terminate their problem solving expertise towards such client as not being sincerely interested in problem solving their particular problem; until such client changes their mind, if ever.

Generally speaking such a client would – consciously or unconsciously -- not really want the problem solved, they only want to pretend to be solving the problem, so they can market themelves as an alleged 'problem solver' for socio-political or economic profits; while actually unconsciously or consciously deliberately and covertly perpetuating the problem for thier own political and/or economic profits. They are parasitically covertly profiteering off not solving the problem; while overtly and publicly pretending to be concerned about helping to solve the problem.

EoP v Homer Lea Strategic Intelligence Goals:

I did read Homer Lea's book: Valour of Ignorance; some of which I found very informative; such as my EoP interpretation of Homer Lea's writings; as published at Military Gospel according to Homer Lea.

"Investigation shows that whenever two nations have become engaged in warfare they have been advancing on converging lines of (resource acquisition for growing consumption or procreation) self-interest and aggrandizement. When the contact takes place, the struggle for supremacy, or even survival is at hand. This inevitable hour is approximately fixed and determined by the angles of convergence plus the sum of the relative (consumption / breeding war) speed by which the nations are moving along their respective lines. Thus it is that, when the angle of (breeding / consumption war) convergence of both or even one of the nations is acute and the speed or progress along one or both of the converging lines correspondingly great, war results in a few years or decades."

I don't think my strategic intelligence goals are exactly the same as Homer Lea's. Similar in some aspects; yes, but identical; I don't think so. That is not to say that there is not much that I can learn from the lessons he learnt, his experience; as I can from anyone else; particularly their willingness to confront themselves and admit their mistakes.

"To free a nation from error is to enlighten the individual, and only to the degree that the individual will be receptive of truth can a nation be free from that vanity which ends with national ruin." – Homer Lea

"It is necessary for you to learn from other's mistakes. You will not live long enough to make them all yourself." -- Eleanor Roosevelt and/or Admiral Hyman Rickover.

"An academic reactor or reactor plant almost always has the following basic characteristics: (1) It is simple. (2) It is small. (3) It is cheap. (4) It is light. (5) It can be built very quickly. (6) It is very flexible in purpose ("omnibus reactor"). (7) Very little development is required. It will use mostly "off-the-shelf" components. (8) The reactor is in the study phase. It is not being built now.

"On the other hand, a practical reactor plant can be distinguished by the following characteristics: (1) It is being built now. (2) It is behind schedule. (3) It is requiring an immense amount of development on apparently trivial items. Corrosion, in particular, is a problem. (4) It is very expensive. (5) It takes a long time to build because of the engineering development problems. (6) It is large. (7) It is heavy. (8) It is complicated.

"The tools of the academic-reactor designer are a piece of paper and pencil with an eraser. If a mistake is made, it can always be erased and changed. If the practical-reactor designer errs, he wears the mistake around his neck; it cannot be erased. Everyone can see it.

"The academic-reactor designer is a dilettante. He has not had to assume any real responsibility in connection with his projects. He is free to luxuriate in elegant ideas, the practical shortcomings of which can be relegated to the category of "mere technical details." The practical-reactor designer must live with these same technical details. Although recalcitrant and awkward, they must be solved and cannot be put off until tomorrow. Their solutions require manpower, time and money."

-- Admiral Hyman Rickover; Letter from H.G Rickover [PDF] via Wikipedia;

It is a human inclination to hope things will work out, despite evidence or doubt to the contrary. A successful manager must resist this temptation. This is particularly hard if one has invested much time and energy on a project and thus has come to feel possessive about it. Although it is not easy to admit what a person once thought correct now appears to be wrong, one must discipline himself to face the facts objectively and make the necessary changes—regardless of the consequences to himself. The man in charge must personally set the example in this respect. He must be able, in effect, to “kill his own child” if necessary and must require his subordinates to do likewise. I have had to go to Congress and, because of technical problems, recommended terminating a project that had been funded largely on my say-so. It is not a pleasant task, but one must be brutally objective in his work.

If however two individuals strategic intelligence goals are not the same; then their ultimate strategic intelligence path is different.

Homer Lea was intent on exposing the impending war consequences; but failed to clearly and simply – in buck stops here simple english a village idiot could understand -- articulate the ‘right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits root causes of overpopulation and overconsumption converging lines of resource acquisition for growing consumption and procreation self-interest and aggrandizement.

To the extent that he was conscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and advise those he was advising to cooperate with other nations, races and religions to address the root ‘right to breed and consume’ clauses of international law causes of war; to that extent his goals were not to honestly educate about how to end war and implement peace; but ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve the ‘war’ problem orientated.

To the extent that he was unconscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and if someone had confronted him and informed him of such failure and he was (a) receptive to the constructive criticism, enquired into it; and admitted his mistakes; and altered his strategic intelligence goals advisory policy; his strategic intelligence goals would have been root cause problem solving orientated; or (b) not receptive to the constructive criticism, ignored or silenced the constructive criticism; his strategic intelligence goals would have been ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve problems orientated.

Its possible nobody ever provided Homer Lea with constructive criticism advise to clearly clarify the root causes of the problem he was allegedly focussed on solving; and engage in an enquiry whether there was sufficient political will to address those root causes; which could be because of many reasons: (a) he did not surround himself with; or had not found or was not even looking for; a or sufficient sincere buck stops here truthseekers to be his advisors (b) of the sincere truthseekers around at that time; on the planet; none of them were focussed on the truthseeking the particular problems Homer Lea was focussed on addressing; and consequently none of them had arrived at the root cause of the problem, and consequently the root cause of the particular problem had not been discovered.

Hence the EoP working hypothesis summary of the difference between EoP and WiP strategic intelligence policy formulators; as stated to Eeben Barlow:

[..] Re: Difference between EoP and WiP Effective Strategists & Policy Formulators:

Masonic War is Peace is about consciously or unconsciously identifying the root cause of the problem, and applying STRATINT to deliberately perpetuate the problem indefinitely so as to socio-politically and financially parasitically profit of the misery resulting from the problem. The tap has been left on, the bath is overflowing. Masonic War is Peace profiteers argue about what colour mops to use; who is mopping; who is hiring chinks or japs or coolies to do the mopping, blah blah.

Ecology of Peace identifies the root cause of any problem and applies STRATINT skills to eliminate the root cause of the problem. EoP Applicants [PDF] identified 'the right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits clauses' - aka policy - of the Masonic War is Peace international law social contract; as the root cause of the majority of socio-economic and political problems resulting from resource depletion and resource wars: including among others: climate change, food shortages, food inflation, cost of living increases, urban sprawl, traffic jams, toxic waste, pollution, peak oil, peak water, peak food, peak population, species extinction, loss of biodiversity, peak resources, climate change, terrorism, feminism, nazism, Islamism, capitalism, communism, militarization of police, etc. Ecology of Peace STRATINT advisors simply point out the tap is causing the bath to overflow; and find out who is willing to cooperate to turn off the tap.

-- EoP v WiP NWO Negotiations: 20 Sep: Eeben Barlow's Military and Security Blog: The Dangers of Ignoring Strategic Intelligence.

To the extent that he was unconscious of such failure to clarify the root causes; and if someone had confronted him and informed him of such failure and he was (a) receptive to the constructive criticism, enquired into it; and admitted his mistakes; and altered his strategic intelligence goals advisory policy; his strategic intelligence goals would have been root cause problem solving orientated; or (b) not receptive to the constructive criticism, ignored or silenced the constructive criticism; his strategic intelligence goals would have been ego parasitic profiteering of pretending to solve problems orientated.

Re: Psychology Researchers confront their fear of confronting context in their research:

See for example: Prof Mary Boyle: Is clinical psychology fearful of social context? Why we might be, why it matters and what we might do about it; Standing up and Speaking out about Social Context Division of Clinical Psychology at Glasgow; regarding psychologist experts 'fear' of confronting context:

"I got the very powerful impression that Laird and Clark seemed to sense that fully engaging with context would make it much more difficult to pursue their core arguments that the main causes of misery are anxiety and depression. That the major reason for misery's persistence is how people think; and that a major part of the solution is individual therapy. Now it certainly complicates funding discussions with government; as you can imagine, if they did engage with context. So this brings me to my second question, what is it about confronting well evidenced role of social context; in both the development and the persistence of mental health problems; which seems so difficult even threatening. I think there is quite a few possibilities and I'll deal with a few briefly. But familiarly over all of them is both our insecurity as a discipline and a profession. So the threats are: Its not science. Its not psychology. Creates feelings of helplessness. Need for acceptance by Psychiatry. Involves telling truth to power. Now psychology as a whole is intensely concerned about its academic and social acceptance; as a science. Jim Orford once said "We still suffer from an inferiority complex making us do things just because they appear scientific. So we emphasise our similarity to the biological and natural sciences. We give the highest to the methods of the natural sciences. We are also very preoccupied with avoiding accusations of social and political bias; of being influenced by subjective values; rather than objective facts." Why our avoidance of context matters so much, the major implication is that our theories and research are always potentially influential. Whether we approve it, intend it or whether we are even aware of it; what we say and do will have influence in so far as particular psychological ideas become part of a construction of reality; which can then be drawn on by those with the power to frame social problems and their perceived solutions. ... It suggests that when we as psychologists conceptualize people and their problems; it becomes a kind of cultural resource; and above all, a relation to this avoidance of context; I think this model shows how our theories can help maintain the social and economic status-quo. ... through narratives of justification. Now it's often been pointed out that maintaining harmful social practices or inequalities; usually needs some sort of public story; which makes them seem reasonable. And if we look at it from the point of view of those who benefit from inequalities; an especially powerful narrative is one which distracts attention from context; which could help us understand why some groups are persistently disadvantaged or suffering; why their behaviour seems difficult; and instead focuses on mental or biological characteristics; which seem to explain these outcomes. Historically psychology has provided a major role in providing these narratives. ... Now it's important to emphasise that we don't intend social harm, but our profession simply has to provide the intellectual framework -- and of course give it scientific respectability -- others will do the rest. ... Context also makes it much more difficult for those in power to avoid addressing the psychological impact of social and economic policies; and also they are not incompatible with helping individuals. I don't think it's an exaggeration to say that clinical psychology is at a watershed in terms of who we are and what we stand for. I hope we will acknowledge that how we relate to social context is absolutely central to those questions; and I also hope we will choose to implement the conference theme in major and very public ways. I think we can be both confident that we have a scientific and ethical mandate, but also I think we may be surprised at just how many allies we would have."

Both sides of the Masonic War is Peace – namely the ‘mental disorders exist’ and the ‘mental disorders don’t exist, psychiatry is a fraud – divide are afraid of confronting their ‘fear of context’ research mistakes.

In their case including context – such as: could what they call ‘mental disorders’ simply be the canary on the frontlines in the Masonic War is Peace toxic culture coalmine; whose cognitive and behavioural coping mechanisms symptoms of individuals experiencing racial, ideological, class or cultural existential identity and/or resource conflict anxiety resulting from population pressures colliding with declining resources; which are the direct consequences of the ‘right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits’ clauses of international law social contract? -- in their research for the ‘causes of mental disorder misery; would result in them either (a) admitting their mistakes and engaging in truthseeking research; or (b) ignoring the canaries; covering up their mistakes; and ultimately psychiatry and psychology drive their 500 tonne train over their ‘fuck ecological carrying capacity gravity laws’ ‘matchstick bridge’.

P Caplan & M Hagen: Re: credible experts; psych researchers fear of context; draft of EoP Homer Lea bio; STRATINT

I received your “What is this, and why did I receive it?” and “Me, too. What is? Why me? I trashed it.” correspondence response to the transparency copy of Draft of EoP Homer Lea bio; STRATINT; credible experts; psych researchers fear of context. Correspondence.

It is unclear if your questions are a result of you not reading the correspondence; or whether you read it and did not understand anything in it; or whether you simply engaged in a bullshit the public relations marketing pretend I am interested response?

If you did not read it:

“The problem with being too busy to read is that you learn by experience (or by your men’s experience), i.e. the hard way. By reading, you learn through others’ experiences, generally a better way to do business, especially in our line of work where the consequences of incompetence are so final for young men. Thanks to my reading, I have never been caught flat-footed by any situation, never at a loss for how any problem has been addressed (successfully or unsuccessfully) before. It doesn’t give me all the answers, but it lights what is often a dark path ahead.

For all the “4th Generation of War” intellectuals running around today saying that the nature of war has fundamentally changed, the tactics are wholly new, etc, I must respectfully say ... “Not really”: Alex the Great would not be in the least bit perplexed by the enemy that we face right now in Iraq, and our leaders going into this fight do their troops a disservice by not studying (studying, vice just reading) the men who have gone before us.

We have been fighting on this planet for 5000 years and we should take advantage of their experience. “Winging it” and filling body bags as we sort out what works reminds us of the moral dictates and the cost of incompetence in our profession. As commanders and staff officers, we are coaches and sentries for our units: how can we coach anything if we don’t know a hell of a lot more than just the [Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures]? What happens when you’re on a dynamic battlefield and things are changing faster than higher [Headquarters] can stay abreast? Do you not adapt because you cannot conceptualize faster than the enemy’s adaptation? (Darwin has a pretty good theory about the outcome for those who cannot adapt to changing circumstance — in the information age things can change rather abruptly and at warp speed, especially the moral high ground which our regimented thinkers cede far too quickly in our recent fights.) And how can you be a sentinel and not have your unit caught flat-footed if you don’t know what the warning signs are — that your unit’s preps are not sufficient for the specifics of a tasking that you have not anticipated?

Perhaps if you are in support functions waiting on the warfighters to spell out the specifics of what you are to do, you can avoid the consequences of not reading. Those who must adapt to overcoming an independent enemy’s will are not allowed that luxury.

This is not new to the USMC approach to warfighting — Going into Kuwait 12 years ago, I read (and reread) Rommel’s Papers (remember “Kampfstaffel”?), Montgomery’s book (“Eyes Officers”...), “Grant Takes Command” (need for commanders to get along, “commanders’ relationships” being more important than “command relationships”), and some others.”

As a result, the enemy has paid when I had the opportunity to go against them, and I believe that many of my young guys lived because I didn’t waste their lives because I didn’t have the vision in my mind of how to destroy the enemy at least cost to our guys and to the innocents on the battlefields. – [Gen. If you read it and did not understand any of it's Ecology of Peace terms:

I sent it to you because I thought some of its contents may be of interest to you and your critical psychology colleagues; considering your status as a 'critical psychiatry' professionals; and prior EoP correspondence to you and hundred of mainstream and critical psychiatry officials – See for example Ref link under your Email addresses – enquiring whether any of you would be interested in cooperating in EoP root cause problem solving of what you refer to as 'mental disorders'; or even in clarifying how or where EoP root cause problem solving principles were in error; and if so EoP Applicants would amend them.

If my interpretation as to your possible interest in root cause problem solving was inaccurate; feel free to let me know so that I can remove you from this correspondence; and/or feel free to delete; and my apologies for bothering you.

My interpretation of you being a 'critical psychiatry expert' is based upon among others: my knowledge of your critical psychiatry book: They Say You're Crazy: How The World's Most Powerful Psychiatrists Decide Who's Normal, and Losing Labels to Find Ourselves

The correspondence in question made reference to Ecology of Peace culture's perspective on strategic intelligence; credible experts and the drafting of Homer Lea biography; which included excerpts of Prof Mary Boyle's – Is clinical psychology fearful of social context?. Why we might be, why it matters and what we might do about it – speech.

"I got the very powerful impression that Laird and Clark seemed to sense that fully engaging with context would make it much more difficult to pursue their core arguments that the main causes of misery are anxiety and depression. That the major reason for misery's persistence is how people think; and that a major part of the solution is individual therapy. Now it certainly complicates funding discussions with government; as you can imagine, if they did engage with context. So this brings me to my second question, what is it about confronting well evidenced role of social context; in both the development and the persistence of mental health problems; which seems so difficult even threatening. I think there is quite a few possibilities and I'll deal with a few briefly. But familiarly over all of them is both our insecurity as a discipline and a profession. So the threats are: Its not science. Its not psychology. Creates feelings of helplessness. Need for acceptance by Psychiatry. Involves telling truth to power. Now psychology as a whole is intensely concerned about its academic and social acceptance; as a science. Jim Orford once said "We still suffer from an inferiority complex making us do things just because they appear scientific. So we emphasise our similarity to the biological and natural sciences. We give the highest to the methods of the natural sciences. We are also very preoccupied with avoiding accusations of social and political bias; of being influenced by subjective values; rather than objective facts." Why our avoidance of context matters so much, the major implication is that our theories and research are always potentially influential. Whether we approve it, intend it or whether we are even aware of it; what we say and do will have influence in so far as particular psychological ideas become part of a construction of reality; which can then be drawn on by those with the power to frame social problems and their perceived solutions. ... It suggests that when we as psychologists conceptualize people and their problems; it becomes a kind of cultural resource; and above all, a relation to this avoidance of context; I think this model shores how our theories can help maintain the social and economic status-quo. .. through narratives of justification. Now its often been pointed out that maintaining harmful social practices or inequalities; usually needs some sort of public story; which makes them seem reasonable. And if we look at it from the point of view of those who benefit from inequalities; an especially powerful narrative is one which distracts attention from context; which could help us understand why some groups are persistently disadvantaged or suffering; why their behaviour seems difficult; and instead focuses on mental or biological characteristics; which seem to explain these outcomes. Historically psychology has provided a major role in providing these narratives. ... Now it's important to emphasise that we don't intend social harm, but our profession simply has to provide the intellectual framework -- and of course give it scientific respectability -- others will do the rest. ... Context also make it much more difficult for those in power to avoid addressing the psychological impact of social and economic policies; and also they are not incompatible with helping individuals. I don't think its an exaggeration to say that clinical psychology is at a watershed in terms of who we are and what we stand for. I hope we will acknowledge that how we relate to social context is absolutely central to those questions; and I also hope we will choose to implement the conference theme in major and very public ways. I think we can be both confident that we have a scientific and ethical mandate, but also I think we may be surprised at just how many allies we would have.'"

The excerpts of Ms Boyle's speech was followed by EoP commentary on WiP – aka Masonic War is Peace – psychology; addiction to profiteering of misery.

Both sides of the Masonic War is Peace – namely the 'mental disorders exist' and the 'mental disorders don't exist, psychiatry is a fraud – divide are afraid of confronting their 'fear of context' research mistakes.

In their case including context – such as: could what they call 'mental disorders' simply be the canary on the frontlines in the Masonic War is Peace toxic culture coalmine; whose cognitive and behavioural coping mechanisms symptoms of individuals experiencing racial, ideological, class or cultural existential identity and/or resource conflict anxiety resulting from population pressures colliding with declining resources; which are the direct consequences of the 'right to breed and consume with total disregard for ecological carrying capacity limits' clauses of international law social contract? -- in their research for the 'causes of mental disorder misery; would result in them either (a) admitting their mistakes and enaging in truthseeking research; or (b) ignoring the canaries; covering up their mistakes; and ultimately psychiatry and psychology drive their 500 tonne train over their 'fuck ecological carrying capacity gravity laws' 'matchstick bridge'.

EoP RH Culture Info has more info on EoP culture's perspective on WiP 'fuck ecological carrying capacity gravity law's matchstick bridges.

In fairness to Brad Blanton; although he also refuses to acknowledge context in his 'noticing' radical honesty practices – as noted in 01 Feb: RH Fraud: McVeigh Faked Execution; Ecofootprint Shrinking Lifeboat Ethics – or to inform his misery induced clients of the root population pressures colliding with resource depletion conformity pressures source of their ego-identity and/or resource conflict psycho-social conflict misery; he does admit – quoting Pema Chodron – that he profiteers of others misery; as noted in: What is Radical Honesty 01, 02, 03.

What does fuck honour infantile kindergarden playing with his lego's Dr. Blanton want? From my experience: He thinks he wants to help others problem solve the causes of their misery; but he can't grow up to buck stops here tell them the truth – heaven forbid he might offend fragile ego crackers, niggers, spicks or japs and be called a 'racist'; by fuck honour liberals, like him – so he'd rather profiteer of their misery; while withholding from them information about what they can do to cooperate with others to eliminate the root causes of population pressure resource depletion psycho-conformity resource conflict pressures.

I also know liberal progressive African women who have absolutely no problem with responsible procreation. They grew up in a South African township that make American ghetto's look like bourgeois upper middle class suburbs and took responsible procreation way beyond 'responsible sex' to no sex at all. They were still virgins at the age of 26. One of them got married and she was still a virgin. They obviously would not be threatened at all by the implementation of an international law social contract; that would require them to procreate below ecological carrying capacity limits; any more than Caster Semenya is threatened by going for a jog.
